(By United Press.)

Washington, July 27.—Capture of Lecharmel by American forces Thursday was reported today by General Pershing.

Paris, July 27.—4 P. M.—Franco-American troops are driving at the southern extremity of the Soissons-Rheims salient between Verneuil and Châtillon-sur-Marne. They have tightened this side of the pocket until it is only less than five miles in width.

French and American aviators, bombing the main highway south of Fismes, blocked all traffic for 11 hours.

With the Americans in France, July 27.—Heavy rains in the entire region have slowed up operations but have rendered the German position increasingly difficult.

The enemy at present depends largely upon his ability to maneuver. The restriction of movements with the narrowing salient rendered more difficult by the allied artillery fire and airplane bombing, is thus added to by the action of the element.

Activity in Albania

Rome, July 27.—Repeated enemy attacks on Italian positions in Albania were defeated yesterday with heavy losses, the war office announced today.

"On the Semeni river, in Albania near the Kuci bridge fighting continued yesterday, the statement said. "Stormers entered our trenches or Monte Corno but were driven out. On Mont Kaberlaba, the British hindered the enemy and finally forced the retirement of their forces. Being caught under a barrage and flank counter attack, the enemy hurriedly withdrew, leaving prisoners.

Advance on Two Fronts

Paris, July 27.—1:40 P. M.—Further advances north of the Marne and in the Champagne were reported by the French war office today.

"On the right bank of the Marne, the French advanced their line north of Port-a-Binson," the statement said.

"In the Champagne, a local operation south of Mont Hamsom enabled the French to realize an advance of five-eighths of a mile, on a front of one and three-quarters miles. Two hundred prisoners were taken, including seven officers."

French and American artillery is subjecting the entire Soissons salient within which 400,000 Germans are concentrated, to the most terrific bombardment of the war.

Hundreds of thousands of shells of all calibres are being hurled upon troop concentrations, ammunition and supply depots and lines of communication from the battle front to the rearmost areas. This deluge of fire and steel is being directed particularly at Pere-en-Tardenois, the

Crisis In Big Battle Looked For Any Hour

London, July 27.—The crisis in the great battle in the Soissons-Rheims pocket is expected hourly. Military experts believe a decision must be reached quickly—that no army can long stand the artillery fire and the constant hammering of French, American, British and Italian infantry, to which the entire group of the German crown prince has been subjected.

While the result of the allied pressure can be felt on all parts of the enemy front, gains yesterday, were recorded only on local sectors, owing to the desperate German resistance. The most important of these were north of Chateau-Thierry between the Marne and Rheims and east of Rheims. The latest official statement said that nearly 20,000 was the total of prisoners taken by the allies.

AMERICAN FORCES ARRIVE IN ITALY

Chief of Staff March Also Announces Formation of Two New Army Corps in France.

DISCUSSES THE OFFENSIVE

(By United Press.)

Washington, July 27.—American fighting forces trained in France have reached Italy, Chief of Staff March announced today.

At the same time he announced the formation of two new army corps in France, the fourth and fifth, and stated that the allies lines in the present offensive have been reduced from 74 to 64 miles.

General March declared that the enemy left flank has been the scene of a very dashing advance by the British, amounting to a depth of a mile and a half on a four-mile front. This creates a marked source of danger to the enemy, making a pocket.

The territory occupied by the Americans and allies is now greater than that by the enemy in Flanders this spring. The American line now reaches to within three and a half miles of Pere-en-Tardenois, which has been continuously shelled.

important German concentration center which is almost within the grasp of Franco-American troops.

Missy-sur-Aisne, five miles east of Soissons, is also under heavy bombardment, rendering practically useless the big Aisne river bridge which the Germans have been using for north and south traffic.

The crown prince's order telling his army to stand and fight, which was reported Wednesday, has changed the Soissons-Rheims battle from a German retreat to one of the most bitterly contested engagements of the war.

No Indiana Casualties.

Washington, July 27.—General Pershing today reported 168 casualties divided as follows: Killed in action, 64; died of wounds, 20; died of disease, 5; died of airplane accident, 1; wounded severely, 60; wounded, degree-undetermined, 14; wounded slightly, 2, and missing in

IS ACCEPTED FOR MARINES

Ralph McCorkle 1 of 3 Members of 2nd Indiana Here Taken

Ralph McCorkle, a member of the Second Indiana artillery, has obtained a discharge and has enlisted in the Marine corps. He is under draft age, which accounts for him being allowed to enlist in another branch of the service, because all men of draft age, if they are discharged from the Second Indiana, must submit to the draft. Leslie Trobaugh, also in the Second Indiana, found this out when he also attempted to enlist in the marines. William Stiers, another member of the Indiana artillery regiment from this county, who is above the draft age, attempted to enlist in the marines this week but was turned down because of his age.

NEW PARKING PLAN IS GIVEN A TRIAL

Space For Vehicles Is Marked Off on the East Side of Main Street
as an Experiment

REGULATIONS AS ELSEWHERE

The new parking regulations were being strictly enforced in the downtown district of the city today where, as an experiment, the east side of Main street has been marked off according to the parking rules.

Machines must be placed within the parking line which is six feet from the curbing, and great stress is being placed on the fact by the authorities that machines must be parked three feet apart; otherwise it will be impossible for machines to get out of the parkway without difficulty.

The west side of Main street will be laid off according to the same regulations early next week. The fact that a small machine pulls out of a parking space will not allow a larger machine to park in the same space unless, the distance between the cars is three feet. This fact was emphasized this morning by Chief of Police Yakey who was enforcing the parking rules today.

The same parking regulations are being observed in Newcastle, Indianapolis, Muncie and numerous of the other surrounding towns.

SMALLPOX CHECKED BY HEALTH BOARD

Necessary Precautions Being Taken
Remove Chance For Epidemic of Disease

TWO PATIENTS RECOVERING

Investigations of the health officials through the city yesterday disclosed the fact that the would be smallpox epidemic, which tried to invade the city last week, is on its last legs.

The only two cases which developed since the smallpox was found in the city are on the road to recovery and although they are still in quarantine, the marks of the disease have all disappeared. The strict precautions which were enforced as soon as the disease was brought before the eyes of the health official, Dr. J. B. Kinsinger, are responsible for the rapid disappearance of the disease. The vaccinations and fumigations in various parts of the city where people had been exposed checked the disease with a finality which guarantees its absolute disappearance within a few days.

DRIVE STARTED FOR 20 NURSES

Headquarters For Rush County Enlistment Will Open Monday in The Court House

WANT 25,000 HOOSIER NURSES

Mrs. A. L. Stewart Heads Drive For Rush County and Expects to Complete Quota in Few Days

The drive for nurses for government work will begin in Rush county Monday with the opening of headquarters in the sheriff's department of the court house.

A call has been made for 25,000 Hoosier nurses between the ages of 18 and 35. Mrs. A. L. Stewart, who has been placed at the head of the recruiting department for this purpose, stated today that she expects to be able to furnish Rush county's quota of enlistment within a few days after the opening of the campaign.

The office will be opened each afternoon from three until five o'clock. Already numerous young women of the county have signified their intention of enlisting in the nurses reserve and as a result, the county enrolling agent is confident that she will be able to supply the county's quota of twenty women.

Women will be given an opportunity to enroll in the United States Students Nurse Reserve in any one of three ways:

(1) As engaging to hold themselves in readiness until April 1, 1919, to accept assignments to nurses' training schools. These women will be sent to the schools as fast as vacancies occur. Those of superior qualifications will be given preference, and it is, of course possible that not everyone who enrolls will be accepted.

(2) As desiring to become candidates for the army nursing school recently established by authority of the War Department, with branch schools in selected military hospitals.

(3) As engaging to hold themselves in readiness until April 1, 1919, to accept assignments to either a civilian training school or the army nursing school. Those who so enroll will be called where the first need arises. The government hopes that a majority of those who enroll will thus put down their names for both.

MEN JUST 21 MAY BE CALLED ON TO FIGHT

Because Class One is About Exhausted in Some States, This Action May be Taken

NOT TIME TO EXTEND AGES

(By United Press.)

Washington, July 27.—There is a possibility of exhaustion of draft class one before congress shall finally be asked to extend draft ages.

Some states have wired to Provost Marshal General Crowder that they are on the verge of drafting their last man of the first class.

To rescue the situation so that it will not necessitate invasion of the deferred classes, it is likely that a call for men who have turned 21 will be issued before January 1, 1919. That, however, may not prevent invasion of the second class unless congress asks hastily upon extension of draft ages when it reconvenes at the end of August.

TWO MORE BOYS OVER THERE

Will Carter and Ed Amos Safely in France, Relatives Hear Today

Private Ed Amos has arrived safely in France, according to word received from the war department this morning by Mrs. Hazel May. Private Amos was inducted into the service about four months ago, going to Fort Hamilton, N. Y., with a unit of the coast artillery.

Word has been received by Mrs. Will Carter, that her husband has arrived safely overseas, having embarked about four weeks ago. Carter went to Camp Purdue with the local increment in April, where he trained as an auto-mechanic before entraining for an eastern embarkation port.

NO TROUBLE TO MAKE FIFTY PERCENT HERE

Indications Are More Than Half of 1918 Class of Military Registrants
Will be Held for Service.

PROVOST MARSHAL'S REQUEST

Instructions from Provost Marshal General Crowder, transmitted to the local board by the state conscription agent, Major Baltzell, that reports of local boards which do not show 50 per cent of the 1918 class of registrants definitely in class one, should be carefully scrutinized, are not expected to be applicable here because 75 per cent of the men registering last June were put in one. This, of course, does not take into account deferred classifications which may be granted by the district board on agricultural claims. It has already been demonstrated by the physical examinations that the per cent of disability for military service among the new registrants will be small.

There are expected to be exceptions to the fifty per cent rule in communities where there is a large alien population and many have been released to join the navy, marines and Emergency Fleet corporation. The board is instructed to send the number of men qualified for general military service and of men released to join other branches of the service, as soon as physical examinations are completed.

LITTLE DAMAGE FROM THE ELECTRIC STORM

Second One of the Week Again Causes Fire on I. & C. Pole But is Soon Extinguished.

DEFICIENCY WIRING CAUSE

As the result of the electric storm last night, only slight damage was reported in this city where the visitation of the storm was extremely light.

For the second time this week, the fire department found it necessary to make a run to the pole on the I. & C. traction line at the corner of Seventh and Morgan street, which had caught fire as the result of the lightning. Only chemicals were used and the blaze was extinguished in a short time. The trouble resulted from a deficiency in the electric wiring system at the point which apparently attracts the lightning, as during the first storm this week, which occurred Tuesday night, the pole was struck and burned several feet from the top.

SOME BANK LOANS ARE NON-ESSENTIAL

Local Banks Will Scrutinize All Requests Carefully Because of Demands of Government

REQUEST OF GOVERNMENT

Also to Banks Own Interests Because of Investing 5 Per Cent of Resources Monthly in Certificates

Enter the non-essential bank loan. About everything imaginable has been judged by the standard of whether it is necessary for the prosecution of the war, but the bank loan never before came under the scrutiny of official eyes until lately.

The banks of Tipton are the first in Indiana to take concerted action in response to a request from the chairman of the board of the seventh district federal reserve bank at Chicago, who addressed a letter to Otto L. Klaus, auditor of state, urging Indiana banks and trust companies to curtail credit to be extended for purposes and interests not held to be essential to the conduct of the war.

Mr. Klaus forwarded the letter to F. E. Davis of Tipton, president of the Indiana Bankers association, with the request that the matter be placed before the annual meeting of state bankers in September. Tipton bankers at once sanctioned the government request and announced that they would adhere to it in every particular.

While there is not likely to be any organized effort on the part of all Rushville or Rush county banks to curtail non-essential credit, banks individually will work out their own policies, according to local bankers. They say that the non-essential loan was as sure to come as anything else which has been found to be unnecessary for the winning of the war.

Not only because of the government request, but likewise for their own good, Rushville bankers declare more and more will loans be scrutinized to determine whether or not they are essential. Banks are being heavily drawn upon due to government demands, especially at this time when they are being called upon to take every month an amount of certificates of indebtedness equal to five per cent of their resources.

"This will result in us calling in many of our long-time loans," said one banker, "and carefully examining all loans we make in the future to be certain whether or not they are essential. Of course, we will still make loans to farmers and others to be used in the conduct of their business, but when it comes to making a long-time loan to buy an adjoining 'eighty' or something of that sort, it's entirely different.

He added that the banks will continue to take care of all legitimate business.

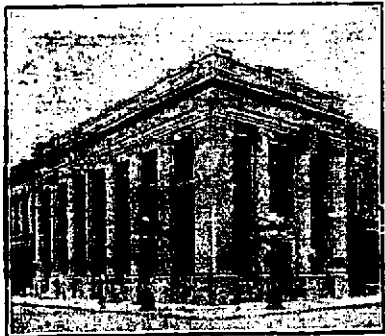

SELECTED MEN ON TRAIN

A troop train, carrying eleven car loads of conscripts, passed through this city shortly after ten o'clock this morning enroute to a camp in Georgia. The troops numbered 412 men and mark the fourth large troop shipment through the city this week.

ASSEMBLY OPENS MONDAY

Carthage Chautauqua Will Continue Until Wednesday Night

Musical, dramatic and literary talent such as has never been rivaled in the Carthage chautauqua, is scheduled for the entire program which will open Monday afternoon on the school grounds.

Each of the six sessions, which will close Wednesday evening, contains talent such as has not marked every session of former assemblies. The National Welfare Chautauqua, under whose auspices the program is being given, has secured an unusual amount of excellent talent for their 1918 appearances, among whom are numerous lecturers who have up-to-the-minute information concerning the warring conditions.

RECORD OATS YIELD

Hays Bever of near Glenwood has reported an average yield of 87½ bushels an acre for his oats crop, which was threshed this week. This is apparently the record for the county to date because the highest average yet reported was 65 bushels an acre, which was realized from the crop on the farm of Rex Innis near Milroy.

FINE TONIC FOR WOMEN

Cardui. It Made Her Well.

Springfield, Mo.—Mrs. Alice Fletcher, of this address, writes: "I cannot say too much in praise of Cardui, it has done so much for me. Shortly after my marriage, 14 years ago, I suffered terribly...with my back pain; me, and my limbs pained me so bad. And also I had such awful bearing-down pains, and I became very weak and could not hardly do my work..."

I went to my sister-in-law and she told me to get Cardui. So I took one bottle and it helped me so much; I got another bottle, and by the time I had taken the two bottles I was a well woman. I have never been troubled any more...I keep Cardui in my home...for I think it is a fine tonic for a woman raising a family.

I always take one or two bottles before and after my...for it strengthens me so, and has such good effects on my nervous system."

Weak women, worn out with the work and care of the home, need a tonic, strength-building medicine, like Cardui, the woman's tonic. NCB-9

DERNBURG SPEECH READ OVER BY HALE

Statement by New York Investigator Regarding German Propaganda in United States

TO JUSTIFY LUSITANIA JOB

New York, July 27—More information on the method of circulating German propaganda matter in the United States has been made public here by State Attorney-General Alfred L. Becker. One statement made is that the speech of Dr. Bernard Dernburg at Cleveland in May, 1915, in which he attempted to justify the sinking of the Lusitania and which caused his expulsion from the United States, was prepared by Dr. William Bayard Hale, self-confessed head of the German information service in America.

Testimony by a copy reader for the information service, Mr. Becker declared, was to the effect that the address was "edited and re-edited" by Hale in this city, and telegraphed to Dernburg in Cleveland on the day it was to be delivered.

Another revelation of the attorney-general's inquiry into German propaganda activities before America's entrance into the war, which he is conducting at the request of the department of justice, included testimony of Dr. Hale that Dr. Edward A. Rumely, arrested recently in connection with the alleged purchase of the New York Evening Mail for the German government, was introduced to him in 1915 as "the special protegee" of Dernburg. The introduction, he declared, was made by Dernburg.

A FEEDING DEMONSTRATION

Average Weight Will be Taken Each Month to Note Gain

What is expected to furnish interesting demonstrations at intervals to the hog raisers of the county was begun yesterday on the farm of Charles Miller southeast of Homer, in a feeding program inaugurated by P. S. Ritchie of the agricultural commission.

The new feeding method which was demonstrated at the initial meeting is expected to bring a big increase in Rush county's hog production. According to the methods to note the rate of increase, the average weight will be taken at the end of each month and reported to Demonstrator Ritchie. Seventy-two hogs were included in the number which were started on the new food program.

ASKED TO CURTAIL DELIVERY SYSTEM

Benson Company Urged to Cut Deliveries From Three to One Each Day to Conserve Manpower

WANTS EXCEPTION MADE HERE

That the delivery system in Rushville be cut to twenty-five per cent of the original schedule, has been requested by the national board of industries. The Benson delivery company let out to be employed on a their deliveries to one each day over each route in order that there might be a conservation of manpower and several employees of the delivery company let out to be employed in a more necessary department of labor. It has not been definitely decided that the system will be cut to the extent requested by the government because of the conditions existing in the city. One delivery a day over each route would mean that in some parts of the city deliveries could be made only in the afternoon and in other parts only in the morning, thus greatly inconveniencing the consumers.

John Davis, proprietor of the Benson delivery company, has written to the department the situation here, and stated today that he would take no steps toward the shortening of the schedule until he had received more specific information from the department. It is most probable, however, that some change will be made in the schedule. The original schedule which included four deliveries daily, two each morning and two each afternoon, was voluntarily cut several weeks ago by the company to three deliveries each day.

Extending the Draft Ages

It is a well established fact now that the draft ages will be extended when congress convenes next month after the summer recess. Secretary of War Baker stated, when explaining the government's enlarged army program, that it was definitely settled that congress would be asked to enlarge the draft so that men under twenty-one and over thirty-two could be held for military service. Just what the new ages will be is not known, but there is a strong probability that all men between eighteen and forty-five will have to register for service.

Extension of the age limits for conscription purposes will be readily accepted by the congress, because an amendment to include older and younger men in the draft was lost several weeks ago only because congressmen had not been requested by the war department to pass the bill. Congress has ever stood ready and willing to grant any reasonable request of the administration to carry on the war. Once the war secretary asks the passage of the amendment, there is no doubt but that it will be made a law in a very short time.

The need for the extension of the draft ages is apparent. Many felt that it should have been done when the amendment was pending before, but the war department announced that it would not urge the passage of such an amendment until a full investigation had been made. It is evident that an inquiry has been conducted and that Secretary of War Baker is convinced that such a step is essential in the prosecution of the war. The government wanted the facts before making a move of such great import.

By the time Mr. Baker makes his recommendations to congress, which will mean millions more in men and billions more in money, there will be approximately 1,500,000 American troops in France. The Germans may have felt the weight of America's fighting strength more than they have already, but this will not deter the government's determination to double and redouble efforts and create a reservoir of man power to clinch victory. The 1,000,000 Americans which German prisoners now hear about in despair is going to grow faster than ever before and if necessary future German prisoners will be hearing of 5,000,000 Americans or an even greater number if circumstances require.

The American military plan is now becoming so gigantic in scope that one inevitably gets the impression that it must mean wholesale dislocation of industry and a change in the order of things of a staggering character. But the war department's plan is to be developed in such manner as to create the minimum interference with the nation's day by day work of efficiently carrying out the industrial, as well as the military side of the war.

The development of the nation's maximum man-power will be a logical and systematic expansion of the nation's war program as carried out so far. Increased shipping facilities, increased means of getting all manner of necessary supplies on the present quantity production basis and other problems involved in building up this gigantic force will all be taken into consideration.

The United States navy has triumphantly demonstrated its high efficiency, and has removed one cause of fear from the minds of the American people. It has proven that we can transport troops to France with no great danger from the German submarines. Though there was no doubt Germany was fully informed of the movements of the transports, all were landed in safety.

No sensible person can doubt that had Germany seen the faintest chance to sink our troop ships she would have been quick to avail herself of the opportunity, thus striking terror to our people at the outset. That only tentative efforts were made is proof that she realized the hopelessness of the undertaking.

Thus does this country again demonstrate its ability to meet any emergency.

A war correspondent says he has been informed that the kaiser and his entire staff were in Chateau Thierry two days after the Huns captured the town, "ready for the march down the 'Marne to Paris. There are worse disappointments than this in store for the kaiser.

Show your civic and neighborliness by swatting the weeds! Keep 'em down. If your own property is free from them, stretch a point and attack them on the highways and byways and even help your neighbor conquer his. All for one and one for all!

The price of rope having been fixed by the government war industries board, it is presumed that the lynchings of which President Wilson spoke in his statement yesterday, may go on interrupted.

BOARD DISCUSSES THE LENGTH OF STATE FAIRIndianapolis Church Federation
Protests Against its Continuation Over Sunday

BILLY SUNDAY MAY APPEAR

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., July 27—Whether the state fair will be open on Sunday this year was under discussion at the meeting of the members of the state agricultural board here today.

The Indianapolis Church Federation has protested against the fair continuing over Sunday, despite the fact that the officials planned to have Billy Sunday as the chief attraction.

That the plans of the association to hold the exhibition open on Sunday will not be changed despite the protest, was indicated. It was pointed out that the fair is not conducted for private gain but for the public and if any profits are made, they go into the public fund.

In order to procure concessions for the event, it was necessary to guarantee a full run for the various shows and attractions, which would include Sunday. The fair has never been a money making proposition and those in charge hoped that they might be able to procure extra funds for conducting the exhibit by keeping open on Sunday.

ATTENTION CALLED TO WASTE OF WHEATFarmer Riding in From West This Morning Reports at Least Two Bushels Along Road

WAGONS LOADED TOO FULL

Attention was again called today to the waste of wheat in hauling it to market. Some time ago the Daily Republican commented editorially on this apparent waste at a time when consumers are restricted in the use of wheat products and are required to use substitutes. Although not all farmers are negligent in this respect the loss from this cause is very large.

A Rushville man who is interested in farming reported this morning the experience of a farmer motoring in on the pike coming from the west. He said there was a two-bushel sack full of wheat along the road. Street cleaners also report that they sweep up much wheat every day.

It is said that the most common cause for losing so much of the grain along the road is loading the wagons too full. Boys climbing on wagons and jumping into the wheat are also responsible for many bushels of wheat being wasted.

MEETING TO CONSIDER INDUSTRIAL PROPOSALBusiness Men and Others Interested Invited to Hear Proposition of Automotive Corporation

MONDAY EVENING AT EIGHT

A meeting of business men and others interested has been called for Monday evening at eight o'clock in the court house for the purpose of considering the proposition of the Automotive Corporation, which is planning to locate a factory to build pleasure cars here. A meeting of business men was held a few evenings ago and arrangements made for the session Monday evening.

Representatives of the concern have been here for several weeks with a view of locating a plant here. They say they want to move here because of good rail facilities and because they will experience no labor troubles. The corporation is now manufacturing utility tractors at Napoleon, Ohio, according to representatives here, and will make trucks in an Indiana city. They also state that they will assemble tractors for this territory in Rushville providing the plant is located.

Few Hours May Settle Battle

London, July 27.—A few hours may be sufficient to determine whether the Germans will succeed in bringing the allied advance to a halt, or whether General Foch's armies are gathering themselves for another smashing blow against the Germans in the Marne salient. For the present, infantry fighting is comparatively quiet, although the allied artillery and airmen have never ceased to harass the enemy.

Further local advances were scored by the French last night in the region immediately to the north of the Marne, in the district where the Germans have been clinging to the river. The war office announced today that the French lines were advanced to the north of Port-a-Binson.

On the Champagne front the French carried out a local operation in the region south of the mountain without a name, as a result of which their lines were advanced nearly two-thirds of a mile on a front of approximately two miles. The French took 200 prisoners in his operation.

The crown prince's order commanding his army to stand and fight turned the German retreat into one of the most bitterly contested engagements of the war, and one with more far-reaching possibilities than could have existed under an enemy withdrawal.

Retirement of the Germans to the Duruy line, or even to the Vesle, would have had a most depressing effect on German morale, but would have been practically devoid of strategic results other than showing the enemy farther from Paris. The effort of the Germans to fight it out, however, subjects the flower of their southern army to the possible danger of a great disaster.

Meanwhile the allied artillery is pouring a heavy fire on the German bases, depots and lines of communication within the pocket between Rheims and Soissons. The entire region is within the range of the big guns, and as on the previous days, they continue to hammer the enemy mercilessly. Allied airmen have increased the intensity of their bombing operations. As a result, the Germans within the pocket probably are no better off than during the period of bitter fighting around the ever-narrowing edges.

Amusements

Comedy and Drama Tonight
"The Bachelor's Children," in which Harry Morey and Florence Deshorn are featured, and "Friend Husband," featuring Charles Murray, are offered at the Princess tonight. The former picture deals with the influence which a baby has over the life of a man given over to vice, woman and song. "Friend Husband," is a comedy of rapid-fire variety which provides lots of good wholesome amusement. Madge Evans will be here Monday night in "Gates of Gladness."

Red Cross Notes

The supply of yarn for knitting socks has arrived at the Red Cross headquarters, and may be obtained on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons. The rooms are closed now except on these two afternoons, awaiting the arrival of material for cutting and sewing garments, and will continue to be closed until further notice, but some one of the departments heads will be there to give out yarn for socks and sweaters these two days. Workers are urged to begin knitting socks as soon as possible as a large number of pairs is required by the first of September.

Considerably Surprised

¶ The other day a woman was considerably surprised, and many others would be if they but knew of the work we are doing—the success we are achieving in the cleaning of garments that have become spotted or soiled.

¶ Ninety per cent of the people haven't the remotest idea of what actually can be done by our process. Old, soiled garments, faded and dirty, can be made to look like new with our wonderful harmless method. New gowns, accidentally spotted by fruit juice or colored liquids can be so treated as to leave absolutely no trace of the spot and positively without the slightest injury to the fabric.

¶ You can safely trust your costliest garment or your most delicate fabrics to the careful attention of our skilled, experienced cleaners. Look around the house today and phone us to call and get what you consider your most difficult job. We will do it so promptly and so well that you will never worry over light things again.
